JAMES R. LYNCH
FINAL REPORT. Sgt. James R. Lynch, who completed 32 years with the Andover Police department Wednesday turns in his final report to Police Chief David L. Nicoll. Sgt. Lynch has been assigned to the day shift for the past several years. He begins vacation time today, prior to his official retirement in a few weeks.

Sgt. Lynch Closes Out Long Police Career

A public service career spanning over three decades comes to a close today with the retirement of Sgt. James R. Lynch from the Andover Police department.

Lynch, a member of the department since November of 1940, has no definite plans for his retirement years, other than to complete police work for a while.

The sergeant actually begins vacation time today, with his official retirement coming later.

Replacing Lynch will be Lloyd G. Pelbin, who was promoted to sergeant by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin Monday with the approval of the selectmen.

Sgt. Lynch became a member of the department on Nov. 12, 1940 as a reserve. He was made a permanent member of the department when named a military substitute in January of 1943.

He was promoted to sergeant in January of 1953 and served in

Notice To Candidates

The Andover TOWNSMAN, as a public service will carry announcements of candidates seeking office in the annual town election in March.

Early submission of announcements would be appreciated.

No announcements will appear in the news columns of the TOWNSMAN after the Feb. 24 edition, which is two weeks prior to the election.

Selectmen To Support Entire Dump Budget

The selectmen are agreed that the full amount of $125,000 for cover material must be provided by the town for operation of the dump, which has been ordered closed by the state.

Chairman Robert A. Watters of the selectmen told a study group of the League of Women Voters Monday night that the full amount of money inserted in the budget by the town manager would be requested.

Also to be supported is the request for a new bulldozer, totalling $60,000.

Dr. Douglas Dunbar of the Board of Health also told the board that his group would support the selectmen's request and urge the Finance Committee to do the same.

The LWV Study Group, led by Mrs. Dana Duxbury, had appeared before the board to urge support for correcting conditions at the present dump and work toward solution of the overall solid waste problems facing the town.

During the discussion, Robert Park, an abutter to the present dump, asked the town to stop trespassing on his land with the operation and claimed the level of the dump was at least 30 feet above his property.

Park, who has prohibited the town from going on his land to do engineering work to determine boundary lines, said the town had covered a stone wall marker and trees with the dump operation.

Selectman Sidney P. White said that he felt Park would be better off if he would co-operate with the town in allowing the engineering work to proceed, rather than blocking the attempts.

Park asked that the disposal site operations on his property cease and the material moved back on town property. He was asked how such was possible when

Shawsheen Bridge To Remain Closed

The Bailey Bridge over the Shawsheen River from the Shetland Properties parking lot to Kenilworth street will remain closed, until further information is obtained regarding the span.

This was the decision of the selectmen Monday night, after Town Manager J. Maynard Austin and Police Chief David L. Nicoll had recommended reopening of the bridge for brief periods to relieve Shawsheen traffic problems.

Several residents of Kenilworth street protested the prospects of reopening the bridge, which had been recommended at a previous meeting by the manager and requested by Shetland, owners of the former Raytheon Co. complex.

Harold Haller, a Kenilworth street resident, questioned the selectmen on the agreement between the town and Raytheon when the bridge was installed by the Army Corps of Engineers several years ago.

He asked who owned the bridge and what variances had been

School Committee Candidate

Atty. Stephen R. Duly

Atty. Stephen R. Duly has announced his candidacy for the Andover School Committee, having filed his papers on January 21.

Atty. Duly has been a resident at 18 Enmore St. for the past seven years. He is a product of the Lynn Public Schools, St. John's Preparatory School, and Merrimack College where he was a Dean's List student for four years, graduating in 1962.

After attending New York Medical College, he spent two years researching problems in toxicology for the Arthur D. Little Co., Cambridge, Mass. He then went to Avco Everett Research Laboratories for two years assigned to flow problems associated with mechanical hearts. He then returned to the academic world graduating from Suffolk Law School with the Juris Doctor degree. Atty. Duly was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar and the Federal Bar and is a partner in the law firm of Sullivan-Duly in Andover.

Power Rate Increase Protested

Congressman F. Bradford Morse has recorded his vigorous opposition to the $11 million rate increase requested last Friday by the New England Power Company (NEPCO). In a letter to the Chairman of the Federal Power Commission (FPC), which must rule on NEPCO's petition for an increase to go into effect next month, Morse stated that the rate increase was "an absolutely unwarranted burden when the price for electricity in New England is . . . already some thirty percent higher than in other parts of the country."

Congressman Morse also pointed out his concern over the fact that last Friday's petition by NEPCO closely followed another rate settlement with the FPC, which took effect only days ago, increasing the cost of electric power in New England. In addition, Morse noted that the request for a rate hike came at a time when Massachusetts consumers were facing a surcharge on their

A member of the Massachusetts Bar Association, the Essex Bar Association, the Massachusetts Trial Lawyers Association, the Merrimack Valley Conveyancers Association and the Andover Chamber of Commerce Housing Committee. Mr. Duly is active in the Andover Service Club, and the Legal Aid Society of Greater Lawrence. He serves on the Board of Directors of CITA, a community drug center in Lawrence, and as corporation counsel for several businesses in the area.

Atty. Duly is long time member of the Shawsheen P.T.O. currently serving as its president, and is a member of the P.T.O. Advisory Council. He also serves as a member of the Extended School Year Committee, a group appointed by the Andover School Committee.

He is married to the former Maryanne Twomey of Lawrence, a member of the teaching staff at Lawrence High School. Both their children attend Shawsheen School.

Mr. Duly's decision to seek a School Committee seat stems from his involvement in school affairs, his frequent attendance at School Committee meetings and his conviction that he can make a significant contribution to the Andover School System and to the community.

Mr. Duly feels that there is insufficient flow of clear information from school committee to the public on such important questions as (a) evaluation and implementation of new programs (b) salaries to educational materials ratio (c) financial manipulation of taxpayer dollar within the school budget (d) individual student progress within the system (e) measurement of pupil achievement (f) system wide testing and (g) the relationship of taxpayer dollars to educational quality.

Atty. Duly thinks the committee has been lax in failing to address itself to such important matters as (a) imposing controls on the implementation of innovative programs (b) responding in a sensitive way to parent-teaching-student grievances (c) school busing.

electric bills to cover the costs of more expensive, low-sulphur fuel.

Morse's letter to the FPC further pointed out that while there are doubtlessly increasing demands for electric power in New England, the needs of consumers and the effect of a rate increase on the New England economy should be considered equally with possible benefits the power company would receive if a rate increase were permitted.

Skate Party Is Planned

The Bancroft PTA will hold an ice skating party Sunday, Feb. 6, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Atanasoff, 5 Arrowood Lane.

Skating races for all age levels will be held. Refreshments will be served.

In case of inclement weather, the party will be held on Feb. 13.

AWARD WINNING ANDOVER ARTIST David Sullivan won the National Academy of Design's Medal of Honor last week for a watercolor abstract of this oil painting of his daughter, Marisa.

Artist Gains National Honors

An Andover artist has just won the top watercolor award in an art show of national scope and importance at the prestigious National Academy of Design in New York.

David Sullivan, 94 Main St., was awarded the Medal of Honor for his watercolor, "Risa IV, No. 31," at the 30th Annual Audubon Artists' Exhibition which opened last week at the National Academy of Design.

Sullivan was sole winner of the medal of honor in the watercolor division in the juried Audubon Exhibition, one of the National Academy's four major annual shows, drawing works of art from all over the country. The art in a juried show is pre-selected; that is, a jury of art experts views the entries and select only a fraction - the cream, in their estimation - to be hung in the actual exhibition. Another jury then chooses the award-winning works from among these sculptures, paintings, etc.

"Risa IV, No. 31" still on exhibition in New York, is a watercolor abstract of another painting which hangs in Andover, "Risa I." This is a large oil painting of Sullivan's daughter Marisa, his most frequent subject. "Risa I" is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Penny, Forbes Lane.

David Sullivan has lived in Andover four years, since he was co-founder of the Andover Gallery with its present owner, Howard Yezerki. Several oils and watercolors of the artist are now on display at this North Main Street gallery.

This major art award is not the first, but it is the most impressive prize for David Sullivan, member of the Rockport Art Association. He has won Gold Medals at two Jordan Marsh exhibits, and other awards from the Copley Society in Boston, the National Arts Club in New York and the Wichita Centennial in Kansas.

The artist, his wife and their two children live at 94 Main St.

Raytheon Andover Gets Contract

Raytheon Company has been awarded three contracts totaling $71.3 million for production work on the Improved Hawk air defense missile system by the U.S. Army Missile Command, Redstone Arsenal, Alabama.

The contracts include $36.8 million for Improved Hawk missiles, $31.2 million for ground support equipment for the Improved Hawk system, and $3.3 million for engineering services for the system. The production work will be performed at the company's Andover plant, and 50 percent of the engineering services will be performed at the company's Bedford facilities.

It was pointed out by the manager and Chief Nicoll that Raytheon still had as many as 1,000 employees at the Shawsheen plant.

Several other smaller industries are also located in the complex.

Chief Nicoll pointed out that at peak traffic hours, he has an officer on duty to move traffic, but due to congestion, the traffic can not be moved.

Such would be relieved by use of the bridge for brief periods.

Also in question was the traffic light in Shawsheen square which residents feel has a too short green sequence in the Haverhill street direction.

This will be taken up with the state department of public works which maintains and has authority for the traffic signals.

Selectman Sidney P. White felt there were sufficient questions regarding ownership of the bridge, and agreements with the town to table the matter.

White also questioned the police chief regarding making a left turn coming off the bridge. The chief said that such has been prohibited all along.

The board then decided to table the matter and to notify Kenilworth street residents in advance if any further action is to be taken.

The bridge was closed by the selectman last summer. Kenilworth residents applauded the decision at the time, while residents of York street felt they, too, were due some traffic relief.

At the Jan. 10 meeting of the board the subject of reopening was brought up by the town manager. The board at the time postponed action until this week in order to allow residents to be heard.

RETIRED PHILLIPS ACADEMY RECORDER Miss Ethel Whitney received a corsage from former colleague Miss Evelyn Jenkins at a reception honoring the quality of Miss Whitney's 48 years of service to the school, 1902-1950.

Tribute Paid Miss Whitney

Miss Ethel Whitney, 59 Highland road, retired long-time staff member of Phillips Academy, was honored Sunday afternoon at a reception and tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gillingham, Old Campus road.

The occasion marked the presentation of a number of volumes to the Oliver Wendell Holmes Library in her honor, by friends. Most of the many friends who came to greet Miss Whitney were faculty and staff members, and wives, who had the experience of working with her at the Academy.

No one has served the school so long as Miss Whitney, who came to Phillips Academy just after the turn of the century, in 1902, and only retired in 1950 as the Phillips Academy's Recorder.

She is remembered by hundreds, even thousands of students for the warmth and solicitude with which she watched over their records, warned them against cutting classes and gently encouraged them.

Dump

he would not allow town crews on his property.

Harold E. McGrath, of Pettin-gill Road, also an abutter, complained about the condition of Fish brook, which he said was polluted by the dump operations.

McGrath handed a bottle of muddy water to the board which he said came from a well on his property which he is unable to use due to the pollutants from the dump.

It was pointed out that the town is making every effort to correct drainage conditions at the dump, realizing the site is in the Fish brook watershed area, a supplier of Haggetts pond.

Mrs. Duxbury outlined the points considered by the league's environmental study group. She asked that the proper cover material of six inches per day, plus meeting the requirements for final cover be met by the town.

Mrs. Duxbury also asked the board to keep in mind the requirements for anti pollution controls in the search for a new sanitary disposal site.

Mrs. Elaine Katz, also of the league committee, asked the board to appoint a committee to study the feasibility of town support for the recycling process which is proving a success with waste paper and glass collection in town at present.

She felt that some economy would be realized through such a practice and urged support of the separation of refuse material on a permanent basis.

Chairman Watters informed the group that the board was in full support of the 1972 budget requests as well as the finding of a new disposal site, based on recommendations of Metcalf and Eddy consultants who have been studying the problem for the town.

Watters also said the board is interested in the long range solution to the problem by working with the regional committee studying the problem.

He said the town manager and Public Works Director Robert McQuade are seeking an extension of time on the life of the present dump.

The state has ordered the dump closed by October, with plans for closing down the operation submitted to the state health authorities by June.

Local officials have asked for an extension of time, in view of the possible use of the area for a future recreation site, thus attaining proper grade.

Also, the town is making every effort to meet state standards.

Rep. James P. Hurrell, of North Andover, who represents a section of Andover, told the board that he had requested a meeting for all parties on the dump site to explore the possibilities of an extension of time and arrive at a reasonable solution to the problem.

Rep. Hurrell said the regulations, adopted by the state and under which the town dump site was ordered, are good.

The landfill operation, he said, is the best immediate solution to the problem, with regional incineration the ultimate solution.

Hurrell said that he would be in touch with the local boards on the matter.

Hurrell pledged his support in working with the town in both the short and long term goals regarding the sanitary disposal site.

Expresses Opposition To Regional Plan

Stating there is sufficient "bureaucracy," already, Selectman Milton Greenberg expressed opposition to the creation of a regional governmental body consisting of Andover, North Andover, Methuen and Lawrence Tuesday.

Greenberg addressed a seminar sponsored by the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce at Merrimack College, conducted for the purpose of studying possible regionalization, or consolidation of municipal services.

The seminar is a result of a proposal initiated by Selectman Robert Watters several months ago. Watters had suggested the towns of Andover and North Andover reunite. Selectman Wilbur Hyatt of Methuen expanded the thought to include all Greater Lawrence communities into a region.

The Chamber of Commerce, with Merrimack College, then offered the facility for discussion of the regional possibilities.

At the conclusion of Tuesday's seminar, the chamber, through its president, William F. Lucey, suggested that a task force be named to further study the regionalization plan, as well as having a professional study made.

Selectman Greenberg said that he felt fewer political levels were necessary, rather than more, adding that he advocated the abolition of county government.

The Andover representative to the seminar felt that the federal and state governments could assume some of the local governmental responsibilities.

Greenberg also pointed out that Andover offers employment opportunities to the Greater Lawrence area as well as use of some of its recreational facilities.

Mayor John J. Buckley was opposed to Greenberg's views, feeling that all communities share mutual responsibilities.

Selectman William B. Duffy, Jr. of North Andover, also opposed a regional plan, while Selectman Wilbur Hyatt of Methuen was in favor.

Robert O'Hare, stressed more regionalization in his address to the group.

O'Hare, in his talk stressed economic advantages to regionalization, drawing on his experiences as a leader of a study of the same subject in the Blackstone Valley region of Rhode Island.

Professor James J. St. Germaine of Merrimack College, in summary told the group that human needs must be considered in any study of regionalization.

Social implications are necessary for consideration, he said, noting there are more than just economic factors involved in the operation of municipalities.

The Merrimack College political science professor urged continued study of the matter.

Dr. McCarthy On Committee

Dr. Kathryn A. McCarthy of Andover has been appointed to the Tufts University Steering Committee, a body formed recently by Tufts' President Burton C. Halliwell to make some basic decisions about the University's future.

Composed of trustees, administrators, faculty, students, and alumni, the committee will implement a study of education options at Tufts and recommend direction to the administration.

Dr. McCarthy, Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, received both her A.B. in mathematics and her M.S. in physics from Tufts, and received her Ph.D. in applied physics from Radcliffe College in 1957. She has been a Tufts faculty member since 1946, and was the first woman to be named dean of the 67-year-old graduate school. Dean McCarthy is also a member of the American Optical Society, the American Physical Society, and the Society of Sigma Xi.

Camera Club Schedules Competition

The meeting of the Lawrence Camera Club scheduled for tonight is to feature a competition in colored slides and black and white prints.

Categories for the slides are Animals, Light and General and for prints are Light and General. The general class in slides will be divided into two groups -- one for beginners and the other for advanced photographers. Two entries may be made in either of the general groups.

Judging will be done by club members so it will be possible to bring in entries for this competition to the meeting.

The meeting is at 8 p.m. in the meeting room of the Merrimack Valley National Bank at 335 Common St., Lawrence. Visitors will be welcome.

Several members of the Lawrence Camera Club took an active part in the photographic show staged last week in the Haverhill Public Library. There were many slide shows relating to local history and to travel subjects. The standing print exhibition showed some fine workmanship by local photographers.

Reappointed

Gerald M. Lewis, 1 Nutmeg Lane, has been reappointed as a Notary Public, Secretary of State John F. X. Davoren has announced. Confirmation of the reappointee was made here at a meeting of the Executive Council following submission of the renomination by the governor.

The term of the Andover Notary Public will expire in seven years.

Why Move In The Summer?

I don't quite understand it, but most people are under the impression that the only time to move is during the summer. Why not consider moving during the off-season?

For one thing, complaints and damage claims against movers increase drastically in the summer when they're swamped with jobs and work harder and longer. It's understandable.

Also, studies show that a winter move is not as much of a disruption to children as it's generally assumed. School officials have more time to give to new students who arrive during the school year. The child can make more friends and faster. And he doesn't have the whole summer to dread the day he goes to a new school.

Many excellent home-buying opportunities are passed up during winter months because of this summer-only moving syndrome. It may be to your advantage to think about this.

Stuck with the burden of selling your home? We can replace that burden with a qualified buyer! Consult JAMES T. Lutheran Church Has Elections

Five persons, including one woman, were elected to the Faith Lutheran Church Council at the annual meeting of the congregation held on Sunday, Jan. 23.

Those elected were Arlene Bell of Tewksbury, Norm Hunt, Arthur Olsen and Richard Rau of Andover, and Kenneth Clouse of North Andover. The congregation also encouraged the Youth Group to appoint two youth representatives to sit in at all Church Council meetings.

The congregation also approved a budget of over $33,900, including a payment of $4,610 to the Lutheran Church in America and the New England Synod.

In the pastor's report, Pastor Donald B. Myrom noted some of the highlights of the year as he saw them: the implementing of a new program of Confirmation; Lowering the age of First Communion to the fifth grade; the gradual growth of an outreach program of Social Ministry; and the restructuring of the committees of the congregation. Looking ahead, he noted that "much more attention needs to be placed on personal and spiritual growth -- especially through adult education," and expressed the conviction that Faith Lutheran Church "existed for the purpose of increasing among men the love of God and of neighbor."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Hayes and Mrs. Sally Thoren.

New Format For Church Meeting

The annual meeting of the Ballard Vale United church, to be held this Friday, Jan. 28, will depart from tradition with a "new format."

Following a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m., old business will be considered for a brief period under new moderator, W. Robert James.

For the rest of the evening, nine lay people will present "A Program for 1972 - and the next five years." These people have met several times during the past two months to set up objectives and program ideas calculated to enable the Ballard Vale Church of the future to go up - not down - in usefulness and influence.

Presentation of the program will be led by the new lay leader, Robert Fisk, and should truly interest all present members and friends, and without whose ultimate participation complete success cannot be attained.

Church Group To Dissolve

At a recent executive board meeting of the Church Women United, it was recommended, that, due to lack of support and interest for the programs, the group be dissolved. This is the final remaining group which was under the leadership of the former Andover Council of Churches. The main objective was to sponsor each year three united services; The World Day of Prayer in March, the May Fellowship Luncheon, and World Community Day in November.

The board is comprised of representatives from the various churches in Andover, however, it has no authority to dissolve the group. Therefore, churches have been notified of the situation and urged to bring this matter to their congregations and/or governing boards.

A final meeting will be held in the Ladies Parlor of the South Church on Monday, March 6 at 10 o'clock. Representatives from the churches have been urged to attend. If this is not possible each church is requested to reply by letter no later than March 1 either upholding the executive board's decision or offering suggestions as to how the group may continue to function.

The board regrets taking this action, however, it sees no other alternative.

AN OPEN LETTER

January 21, 1972

TO THE CITIZENS OF ANDOVER:

Constantly the local newspapers report the outstanding work and good deeds performed by Merrimack College. However, they may not realize there is another side to the story; so, please read my viewpoint of Merrimack College and/or those who accept the responsibility for its physical plant.

It has been reported that the college owns one hundred and seventy (170) acres of land. This is choice, tax-free, largely undeveloped land in the towns of Andover and North Andover. Despite the availability of this land, a new infirmary is to be built on a small plot of land adjacent to my home - sixty (60) feet from my picture windows. Obviously this is in conflict with Merrimack's stated intent to "expand with an aesthetic eye".

The Lawrence Evening Tribune on September 9, 1969 published a feature article about the "Town Houses" after they were completed. The following is a brief excerpt: "... Hatem notes that the layout of the new facilities is in keeping with Father Aherne's desire to make the college 'a place of which area residents can be proud - intellectually and visually.' The space behind the three newly-erected 156 resident town-house dormitories is being done with an "eye out for privacy, eye-appeal and the protection of abutters" (on Fox Hill Road, Andover) he says. "We must always retain the school's and the area's dignity." Father Kenny adds, "progress hasn't just meant a bulldozer."

Indeed, this action will reduce not only the aesthetic value of my home and property, but also its assessed value.

In 1954 I purchased my land, which was zoned for single family residential use, and started building my home. Subsequently the college acquired the adjacent property. Five years later the Town Meeting rezoned a portion of Fox Hill Road, which included my home, to an education zone. In 1964 the Town Meeting approved the existing zoning regulations under which my home is considered in a single family zone. However, 60 feet from my property the college can build the infirmary under a special section listed on page 7, section 6 provided for religious, charitable land use. The selectmen and building inspector cannot refuse to issue a permit for the infirmary. This section of the zoning by-laws was adopted to conform with the state laws, Section 40A, GL 2.

Two units of the "Town Houses" built three years ago are only thirty (30) feet behind the property of my next door neighbor at 33 Fox Hill Road. As it was not legally required, and was to the advantage of the college, I did not receive notification of the proposed town house (dormitories) construction, although courtesy would have dictated such notice since it came very close to my property. By the time the building permit was issued and construction started it was too late to issue a protest. Although the seven units are constructed on a very small portion of the college's available land, they accommodate one hundred fifty-six (156) students - not exactly spacious quarters - a bit congested!

I have not seen the plans of the new infirmary building. However, it obviously will have to be extensive enough to allow for both in and out-patient care of a student population of over 2000 and facilities for an adequate staff. This building will be staffed and in use twenty-four hours a day during the school term. Traffic will also be increased by the provision plus ambulance service. Additional burden will certainly be placed on the now overloaded sewer lines which already require work by employees of the Board of Public Works to clear the pipes to avoid flooded cellars which already occurs in my home, and the homes in the neighborhood.

After many years of hard work on my own part and the expenditure of a large amount of money for material and union workers, my home is now complete. The living and dining rooms face the rear of the proposed infirmary. Had I realized that with all the available land the college owns, they would consider placing a building this close to someone's home, I would never have invested the money and time in constructing my dining room with a glass wall eight feet high and twelve feet long, a living room with a curved picture window six feet high and ten feet long knowing it would overlook an infirmary sixty feet away. If anyone is interested I will be glad to have them visit my home, enjoy the present view and contemplate what it will be like following the proposed construction. Just give me a call at 475-6034 to make arrangements.

On Monday, January 17, 1972 I spoke to Rev. Thomas C. Kenney, OSA, Collegiate Treasurer. He verified the fact that the infirmary would be built behind my home as stated above. He read the original draft of this letter - which was even more specific than this one - and commented that if I wished to print it, that was my business. I also suggested various locations where the building could be placed equally convenient to the students but away from my home.

Since I assume complete personal responsibility for the statements in this letter I have elected to publish it as a paid advertisement.

As you make your pledge, and your check payable to the Merrimack College Building Fund, may I ask that you stipulate that it is made with the understanding that the infirmary will not be located adjacent to my property but in an equally convenient area. This will accomplish the aims of the college and yet not reduce the aesthetic and financial value of my property.

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Garvey

studies in biomedical engineering at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland.

One of more than 400 students who recently received educational awards from The Rotary Foundation, Ruscio was sponsored by the Rotary Club of Lawrence. "It is a pleasure for the Lawrence Rotary Club to participate in so direct a manner in The Rotary Foundation's program of international understanding among peoples. With great pride, we congratulate Steven Ruscio, a truly representative American student who embodies our finest ideals, particularly that of service above self," said Stern.

Ruscio also received commendation from Merrimack College President, Rev. John R. Aherne, O.S.A.: "Your achievement is of considerable gratification to Merrimack College and its academic community. I note with interest that you are entering a new field of study, biomedical engineering with its potential for serving humanity. Congratulations on your accomplishment and best wishes for continued success."

"Merrimack College is also deeply grateful to the International Rotary and the Lawrence Rotary Club for choosing one of its students for this valuable scholarship. The foresight demonstrated by International Rotary is heartening to all who need the support for young men and women as they prepare to make their contribution to the betterment of society," added Fr. Aherne.

Philharmonic To Present Fashions

As its major Fund Raising event to assist the Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Orchestra, The Women's Guild of the Philharmonic Society is holding a "Dinner and Fashion Highlights." This event will take place on Wednesday evening, March 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Pelham Inn, Pelham, N.H.

Chairman for the affair is Mrs. Anthony J. Ippolito, assisted by the following committees: tickets, Miss Catherine Caruso chairman, and Mrs. Albert Perrault, Miss Della Borrelli, and Mrs. Frank Duncan; hostess chairman, Miss Gladys Boland; decorating committee, Mrs. Alfred Concemi, chairman, and Mrs. Samuel Cohen, and Mrs. Domenic Teoli. Others assisting on committees are Mrs. James Forma, Mrs. James Caram and Miss Emma DeFelice.

Mrs. Perrault will provide the background music, and Mrs. Ippolito will serve as commentator. Professional models will show the latest in Spring creations. Anyone interested in the Orchestra and wishing to attend may contact any one on the committee. Mrs. Frank Duncan is President of the Guild and would appreciate your interest.

Announces Candidacy For Board

Mr. Theodore E. Meinelt, Jr., 173 Elm Street, Andover, wishes to announce his candidacy for selectman for the Town of Andover in the upcoming town elections.

Mr. Meinelt, a resident of Andover for the past 16 years, is the holder of a distinguished service record during World War II serving a six year enlistment in the U.S. Navy, 1940 - 1946 in the South Pacific Theatre of Operations.

He was educated in the Lawrence public schools graduating from Lawrence High School with the class of 1940. He also attended Evening Study Classes at Lowell Technological Institute and Merrimack College respectively.

Mr. Meinelt is active in several civic and fraternal organizations and is currently employed by Northeast Airlines at Logan International Airport as a ground support mechanic.

He is not new to Andover politics, being a candidate for the Andover Housing Authority in 1964, a candidate for Selectman in 1970 and has just recently completed a five year term as state appointee to the Andover Housing Authority 1965-1971.

He is married to the former Shirley Abercrombie and resides with his wife and children, Richard A., Mrs. Sandra C. Ebacher of Amesbury, David J., and Susan C. at 173 Elm St.

Mr. Meinelt pledges to work within the present governmental structure of the town with the following proposals:

1. All appointive powers to rest solely with the Board of Selectmen.
2. Immediate action to be taken on our ever increasing problems of solid waste disposal and trash collection.
3. Better overall cooperation with Town Committees and Department Heads.
4. Labor Negotiations with Town Employees to be administered solely by the Board of Selectmen.
5. Continue talks of regionalization with Greater Lawrence communities on solid waste-water-sewerage treatment facilities and housing, continued support of Home Rule Type of Central Government.

Plan Fair

The fair committee of the Free Christian Church has announced that the 1972 Fair has been scheduled for Nov. 4.

Cookie Sale Aids Programs

This week the girls of Merrimack River Girl Scout Council are busy selling cookies to help earn the money to supply camper-ship, improve Day and Established Camps, supply money to give girls wider opportunities, and to enrich their own troop program.

To some people this is the Girl Scout image, but cookie selling is only a part of the girls' activities. Mrs. James Plant, neighborhood chairman of the Shawsheen Valley Neighborhood which is made up of Andover and North Andover reports the group has voted to adopt Hathorne School at Danvers as a service project. The troops have responded in many different ways.

A Junior Troop planned and carried out a Christmas party for some of the patients, complete with pinata, gifts and refreshments. Many others have collected clean used toys and books for the patients, others, clean, good as new clothing. Birthday parties are being planned for each month of the year when a troop will take all the food, including a cake, and gifts to the school and have a party for those having a birthday that month.

Plans are afoot for some of the older girls to invite pupils of the school to Andover for a cookout later in the season.

Three Cadette girls are working with an Andover boy who spends four days a week at the institution receiving treatment, and needs help in continuing the treatment when he is at home, developing manual and speech skills. Patty Liszewski, Nancy Sheehan and Colleen Griggs will give time each week to this fine project.

Girls taking part in these activities have caught the spirit of service and are learning to be happy, resourceful citizens in accord with the purpose of Girl Scouting.

St. Robert's Registration Announced

St. Robert's Country Day School, West Andover, announces the registration period for September 1972 enrollment. Registration for siblings of children now attending the school will continue until Jan. 29. Registration will open Jan. 31, for children whose parents are known to be members of the parish. This particular registration period will close on Feb. 12. Beginning Feb. 14, enrollment will be offered to children of non-parishioners. This will continue until the classes are filled. Classes for the 1972 - 1973 school year will run from 9 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. There will be no afternoon sessions.

At the present time there are 16 openings in the K-1 (nursery) group and 24 openings in the K-2 (kindergarten) class.

Registration forms and further information can be provided by the registrar, Mrs. Lyle Winans.

Church Speaker

Joseph V. Mahoney, managing editor of The Lawrence Eagle Tribune, will speak Sunday at the coffee forums at Christ Church, following the 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. services.

VODKA

Vodka has become increasingly popular in recent years as a base for cocktails. Probably the two most popular cocktails using vodka are the Vodka Martini where the vodka replaces the gin and the Bloody Mary - vodka with tomato juice to which are added various flavorings such as lemon, salt and pepper, Worcestershire sauce and a dash of tabasco.

The vodka we drink in the West has very little taste or smell, which is a major reason for its growing popularity. No evidence on the breath for those who prefer to keep their drinking discreet. In fact, the only drawback to vodka is its insidious absence of taste. Often you do not realize that you are imbibing alcohol until your reflexes tell you.

One tends to think of vodka as a uniquely Russian beverage; yet such is not the case. Vodka did originate in imperial Russia, but there is American vodka as well as German and English.

Why not buy the cheapest vodka? Because distilling is a most complicated art and seldom will the same end product result - even when the same recipe is used. Vodka does have a distinct taste as anyone who has tasted a good Russian Vodka will attest to. Try a Vodka fraise. Into a shaker add: 3/4 oz. Vodka, 3/4 oz. light rum, 1/2 oz. strawberry liqueur, 1/2 oz. lime juice, 1/2 tsp. grenadine. Shake well with ice and strain into chilled, sugar-frosted cocktail glasses. Top with a strawberry.

To Present Original Production

The Night The Late Bird Sang is an original production written, performed and staged by students of the Humanities Club and Humanities classes of the Andover High School.

Included in the program will be Jim Cowdery and Kyle Knipe who will play and sing songs of their own composition, and Jeanne Lenk who will play Mozart's First Sonata in C Major, as well as one of her own creation. The performance will conclude with a rock opera written and produced by a group called Skaldus.

The program will be open to the public Friday evening, Jan.

Troop 40 Learns To Cook

One of the first badges to be worked for is that given for cooking, since the skills gained aid in the camping program which begins with the Camporee program in May.

To help a group of Girl Scouts from Troop 40, Sanborn school, complete the necessary requirements, the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High school opened its doors to the cooking department.

The girls are attending a class for one and one-half hours each Wednesday afternoon for a period of five weeks. They will be learning cooking terms, how to measure foods, prepare various kinds of foods and then cook and serve a meal. They are being taught by qualified instructors from the school faculty, and will be awarded their badges upon successful completion of the course.

that capacity on the early night shift for many years.

He has served as the department's prosecuting officer on occasion during his career.

Sgt. Lynch, who resides with his wife on Prospect Road, is the father of four children, Thomas of Chelmsford, James of South Main street, Daniel, and a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Buscema of Lincoln street.

Sgt. Belbin, 38, who will begin his new assignment Monday, has been a permanent patrolman since Oct. 1, 1967, will serve on the day shift temporarily, replacing Sgt. Lynch.

He has served as president of the Police Betterment Association, and is a graduate of the North Essex Police Academy.

Also appointed Monday by the manager, were two new patrolmen. Frederick Sunderland, 6 Lincoln Circle and Frederick St. Jean, 143 Chestnut St., will begin their duties Sunday.

Overall alignment of assignments on the department is awaiting the filling of new lieutenant vacancies on the department and implementation of the new work schedule which allows four days on and two days off, according to provisions of the police contract with the town. The formal approval awaits town meeting action.

The promotional examination for lieutenant was administered by civil service in December and the results are due in early February. Establishment of a promotional list is expected shortly thereafter.

Announcement was made by George E. Wallace, vice president.

In his new position, Gray will be responsible for several group insurance data processing systems including dividend, Olympic plan and trade association billing applications.

Since joining the John Hancock in 1968 he has advanced through increasingly responsible levels of programming.

Gray is a graduate of Northeastern University and a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Scout Troop Observes 25th Year

Scoutmaster Louis Galbiati announced that Troop 5, sponsored by St. Augustine's parish celebrates 25 years in scouting this year.

Preparation for the "Freeze-out" overnight camping trip scheduled for the first weekend in February are continuing.

Recent meetings, have been devoted to developing improved scoutcraft skills. An example is a spirited knot tying contest that was held between the two patrols. Presently, the scouts are building sleds to be used at the campout and entered into the "Klondike Derby" competition.

Tuesday afternoons and advanced on Monday afternoons.

A five-week course in candle making for girls in grades 7-9 starts on Feb. 8 and will meet on Tuesdays 7-8:30 p.m. Also for junior high school girls will be a course in tumbling and acrobatics which starts Feb. 11 and meets for five weeks on Fridays 5:30-6:30 p.m.

A swimming course for Merrimack College girl students will start on Feb. 2 at Phillips Academy pool. The group will meet for six weeks on Wednesdays 7:15-8 p.m. and enrollees may either swim informally or receive instruction on any desired level.

Enrollments are also being accepted for the next vacation camp which will be conducted during school vacation week of March 13-17 and is open to boys and girls 8-12 years of age.

Scripture Courses To Be Given

At a time when Catholics are turning more and more to the Bible for study and prayer, two courses in Scripture are being offered to Christians of all denominations under the Continuing Religious Education program at the Christian Formation Center beginning in February.

"St. Paul's Letter to the Romans" will be offered on Thursday evenings beginning Feb. 10 and continuing to March 16 from 8 to 10 p.m. The course is designed to help participants reflect on the Biblical basis of their own faith and to see and appreciate the impact of contemporary Biblical scholarship and research, thus enriching and deepening their understanding of Paul's message. Previous Biblical background not required.

The instructor for this course, Carole Bohm, teaches Scripture at Emmanuel College in the M.A. Religious Education program and is administrative assistant at Action for Boston Community Development offices, Boston. She holds a Masters in Theological Studies with a New Testament Major from Harvard Divinity School. Carole has held teaching and administrative positions both in this country and in Jordan. She has participated in archeological excavations in Tell Gezer and has traveled extensively in the Middle East.

"Scriptural Themes in the Lenten Liturgy," a course designed to help deepen faith in Jesus Christ by considering the Scriptural content of the Lenten and Holy Week liturgies, will be conducted by Joseph Hallee on Wednesday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m. beginning March 1 and continuing to March 22. There will be special emphasis on relating the Scriptural messages to participants needs and situation.

Joseph Hallee has studied theology and liturgy at Notre Dame, Conception Seminary in Missouri and St. Paul U. in Ottawa, Canada. He is a teacher in the Boston school system.

For further information contact Nancy McNeil at the Christian Formation Center.

T.E.C. Congress To Be Held At Center

The first Greater New England Teens Encounter Christ (T.E.C.) Congress will be held at the Christian Formation Center, Andover, on Sunday, Jan. 30, from 1:30 to 8:30 p.m.

According to Fr. Roger Giglio, O.F.M., director of the T.E.C. program in Andover, hundreds of young adults are expected to attend from all over the New England and New York areas.

The TEC program is designed for high school seniors and college freshmen and sophomores and is conducted monthly at the Christian Formation Center, the Cenacle in Brighton and at Graymoor, New York.

Through a weekend of sharing and discovering in an atmosphere of a Christian community, participants grew in their awareness of Christ in themselves, in other people and in the world around them.

Fr. Roger invites all TEC'ers to come celebrate "Popcorn", the theme of the day, at this giant reunion. "Popcorn" promises to be a day of sharing and exploring with one another and Christ. The "Popcorn" program includes a guest speaker, Fr. Aidan Licari, O.F.M., a surprise happening, liturgy and supper.

Pucksters Showing Improvement

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High hockey team has come a long way since the pre-season Jamboree, as witnessed by the two excellent games it put back-to-back in Merrimack Valley Hockey League competition last week at the Billerica Forum.

Coach Dick Valle's Golden Warriors had to settle for a split of the two games, but that was good enough to give them undisputed possession of third place with a respectable 5-5-0 record.

Four of AHS' five defeats have come at the hands of twin powers Burlington (10-0-0) and Billerica (10-1-0), while the locals have handled the rest of the MVHL without too much trouble.

Last week Andover played one of its finest games of the campaign in a 2-0 loss to Burlington, and then rebounded for a 3-2 win over Chelmsford in their third place showdown battle.

Yesterday afternoon, after TOWNSMAN presstime, the Golden Warriors were slated to face fifth-place Tewksbury (3-5-2) at the Forum. It was the first meeting of the season between the two clubs.

This Saturday afternoon at 12:30 p.m., AHS will kick off a four-game league slate by tangling with Wilmington (2-6-1). Andover already owns a 3-1 victory over the improving Wildcats.

The biggest game of the year is also scheduled for Saturday at 3 p.m., when Burlington locks horns with Billerica for first place. Their first encounter this season was a classic, with Burlington winning 3-2 on a face-off goal just 47 seconds from the final buzzer.

Burlington

A pair of second period goals by sophomores Richie Flynn and Barry Yeadon carried Coach Ed Cahoon's undefeated Red Devils to their 2-0 conquest of Andover.

As the score indicates, the Warriors played a very defensive game and waited for the offensive breaks which never came.

But offensive breaks don't come too often against Burlington, which had earlier in the season clobbered Andover by a 7-1 score.

In their first 10 starts, the Red Devils have allowed only six goals for a miniscule 0.60 goals-against average.

However, in allowing Burlington only two goals, Andover held the power-laden team to its lowest single-game total of the season. The previous low point had come in the 3-2 win over Billerica.

Usually the Red Devils average six goals per contest, having netted 60 red lighters in 10 games.

The Golden Warriors' super defensive effort was keyed by goaltender Dave Hubbell, who turned in the best netminding performance seen in the league over the first half of the season.

Hubbell had a little extra incentive. Ironically enough, both he and brother Ken (a sophomore center-winger) lived in Burlington just three years ago and played Bantam hockey with many of the current Red Devil performers.

All-in-all, the junior goalkeeper made 27 saves and held Burlington scoreless in the first and third periods. The armed robbery he performed in the superb job was perfectly legal, as Dave came up with every type of save imaginable during the action.

He kicked out 11 shots during the first stanza, as the teams skated to the dressing rooms locked in a 0-0 tie.

Richie Flynn eventually made it 1-0 at 1:59 of the second stanza, pocketing his fifth seasonal goal on a 10-foot backhand through a screen. Steve Simpson assisted.

Barry Yeadon added some insurance at the 6:52 mark, tipping home a shot by defenseman Jack Flynn during a powerplay. Richie Flynn also helped on Yeadon's 11th red-lighter.

Hubbell then kept the slate clean once again in the third period, halting eight shots during this frame.

Andover's chances were few and far between, as the Red Devils finished with a wide 29-8 shooting spread. Sophomore goalie Mike Pergamo kicked out all eight AHS attempts to post the shutout.

Chelmsford

The Vallemen took over third place and avenged an earlier 4-2 loss to Chelmsford at the same time.

This contest was a bit different from the Burlington game, as Andover generated one of its best offensive attacks of the year.

However, it took a two-goal third period to pull out the come-from-behind victory. The primary reason it was so tough was the stellar goal-tending of Chelmsford's John Petrine.

Petrine held Andover at bay for two periods, in spite of the fact the locals controlled the puck almost 80 percent of the time and were swarming all over the Chelmsford zone.

The Golden Warriors grabbed a quick 1-0 lead at 3:01 of the first period, as second-line wing Ed Flannery connected for his second goal of the season.

Flannery's five-foot forehead shot from directly in front of the net hopped over Petrine's stick. Junior winger Mike Murnane (13 points) had the lone assist.

Slightly more than a minute later, at 4:05, Lions' Capt. Jim Palmer tied it 1-1 with a 20-foot wrist shot that caught the lower left corner of the AHS cage.

Palmer then put Chelmsford ahead by a 2-1 score at 0:45 of the second chapter. He took a pass from defenseman Bob Moorehouse at the red line, and out-raced two Andover defensemen into the Warriors' zone.

Moving in alone on Hubbell, Palmer drew him out and deposited a five-foot backhand right into the center of the net.

Hubbell prevented further damage at the 3:40 mark, stopping a Jimmy Kerrigan breakaway shot with his shoulder. With one minute to play in the frame, the Andover goalie roared 20 feet out of his crease to flick the puck away on an aborted breakaway attempt by Chelmsford's John Mattison.

Junior first-line center Scott Seero came back to equalize the score 2-2 at 4:57 of the third period.

Gathering in a set-up pass from linemate Bob Farnham, Seero flipped a 15-foot shot from the slot past Petrine to the stick side.

Midway through the canto, Kerrigan had another breakaway and a chance to boost the Lions back into the lead. But Hubbell forced him to commit himself too early, and his shot went wide of the cage.

Defenseman and Co-Capt. Jim Stewart played the hero's role at 8:49 of the last period, notching his first seasonal goal and the one that proved decisive.

With Farnham assisting once again, Stewart snapped a 50-foot wrist shot from the left point that hopped into the lower right corner of the Chelmsford net.

The Lions were on the power-play for practically the final two minutes of play, as separate penalties to AHS players Scott

Embassy Continues Undefeated

Fashioning its best all-around game of the season, the undefeated Embassy starched Dana's, 38-29, for an important win in the Over-30 league last week.

The victory kept the league leaders one full game ahead of the Hornets who used a well-balanced attack to dump the revamped Padres, 47-45. In other action, Capt. Frank Monette's 23 points propelled the Pick-ups past the Sweepers, 45-22.

Streaking to its ninth straight win, the high-flying Embassy, had too much board strength and firepower for the taller Dana's squad, holding the third place team to its lowest point total in three years.

Former Red Soxer George Thomas and Tom Andrew swept the boards while Guards Don Strong with 19 points and Wally Gardner with 11, did the shooting. Paul Twomey, the league's leading scorer, was held to only nine points but pulled down 13 rebounds.

Hornets guard Dick Corry swished 12 jumpers and a free throw for 25 points to spark a close triumph over the cellar-dwelling Padres.

Jim Campanaloro chipped in 14 points in the Pick-ups win over the Sweepers.

At a recent league meeting, the following were elected officers for 1972: Frank Monette, president; Tom Andrew, first vice president; Jim Caselden, second vice president; Dick Marciano, secretary; Jack Hammar, treasurer; Paul Twomey, officials and equipment; Don Strong, publicity; Dr. Niceforo, Al Maxwell, Dick McAnern, Jack Milne, directors; Art Yancy, Tom Hopkins, referees.

The league will field an all-star team next month to compete in a tournament with Raytheon, Gillette and the Andover Institute of Business.

Bantams Drop Pair On Weekend

The Andover Bantam Hockey Team dropped a pair of away games this past weekend to even their season's record to 4-4-1.

On Saturday the Andover team battled from a 3-0 deficit at the end of two periods at Princeton, N.J., to tie the score at 3-3 at the end of regulation time before bowing 4-3 in double overtime.

Princeton scored once in the first period and twice in the second before the Andover attack took over.

Rich Daly posted Andover's first goal at 4:23 of the final frame with William Bullard and Len Taylor assisting.

Andover continued to press throughout the period and at the 12:30 mark Alan Kurth fired home his second goal of the season to pull Andover to within one. Tom Lawler and Mark Farnham combined to set up the goal.

Then with 1:03 left Brian Flannery took a goalmouth pass from Chris Bensley and sent the puck into the net to set up the sudden-death overtime.

Both teams had several chances in the first overtime period but neither could capitalize but Princeton was able to poke the puck home in a goalmouth scramble at 1:26 of the second overtime to take the victory.

On Sunday the team travelled to Wallingford, Conn., to face the New Haven Bantam All-Stars and came away with a 4-1 loss.

New Haven scored in the first three minutes of the game but at 4:26 of the third period Steve Hillmann tied the game for the local six with Flannery and Bensley assisting.

Shortly thereafter New Haven again regained the lead and added two insurance markers near the end of the game.

Coming in for special praise in the two games were defensemen Peter Issenberg and Dale Crossan for their steady play along with hard-working forward Chris Bensley.

Andover will meet Brunswick, Maine, at Phillips Academy on Saturday at 6 p.m. and will travel to Hanover, N.H. on Sunday.

Inman and goalie Hubbell kept Andover men in the penalty box. To add to the advantage, Chalmers pulled its goalie with 49 seconds to play for a 6-on-4 skater advantage.

With 19 seconds to go, Hubbell made a kick save on a 15-foot back-hander by Palmer. There was a gigantic pile-up at the Andover crease as the final buzzer sounded, but somehow the puck stayed out and Andover had third place to itself.

The Golden Warriors finished with a mammoth 35-16 shots-on-goal edge. Petrino was razor-sharp with 32 saves, while Hubbell turned back 14 shots.

A bumper system for autos that can effectively cushion a car in collisions up to 10 miles per hour was recently developed. The bumper's inventors say the two-stage system consists of rubber springs backed up by a grid of aluminum. Mild shocks are absorbed by the rubber; more intense collisions crush the grid which can be replaced.

Church League

Unbeaten Ranks Dwindle

By Rick Harrison

The ranks of the unbeaten were cut to just two teams in the Andover Church Basketball League last Monday night, as a pair of previously-undefeated clubs took it on the chin at the East Junior High gym.

In the Junior Division, two-time defending champ West Parish A spoiled the dreams of St. Robert's A for a perfect season by squeezing out a close 8-7 decision.

This left St. Robert's B as the only unbeaten quintet in the Junior loop with an 8-0 record. Both West A and St. Robert's A are now 7-1.

The upset of the night came in the Intermediate Division, when Christ-South edged St. Augustine B by a 17-14 score. Christ-South had entered with a 1-3 ledger, while St. Augustine B was 4-0.

This upset paved the way for three-time defending Intermediate champion West Parish A to assume the top spot with a 5-0 slate.

Juniors

League-leading St. Robert's B survived one of its toughest tests of the season, building up a 20-4 halftime lead before defeating St. Augustine D by a 20-12 count.

Todd Orlando sparked the winners with 6 points - all in the first quarter. Scotty Goldstein, Greg Nicastro and Art DeFusco tossed in 4 points apiece, while Kevin Fogarty hooped 2 points in a big 12-point second period.

Geoff Bragdon once again paced St. Augustine D with 8 points. Eddie Reming chipped in with 4 second-half markers, and Charlie Heseltine also played well.

One of the most exciting games of the year saw West Parish A, which now has a 71-3 record over the past five years, hold on for its 8-7 win over St. Robert's A.

West led 6-2 after one quarter and by the same score at the half. The losers closed to 7-6 by the three-period mark, before the rivals traded last stanza free throws.

Brian Bronson of West A dropped in the game-winning free throw with less than two minutes to play. T. J. Caveney came back to swish one charity toss in the final seconds for St. Robert's, but his try for the tying point fell off the rim.

Several baskets on both sides were nullified by fouls or other violations, and there were many turnovers late in the contest as both teams felt the pressure of the big game.

Steve Serley pumped in 4 points to lead the West attack, while Jon Crush popped in 2 points and Bronson canned a pair of free throws.

Joel Smith, Co-Capt. John McEwen and Kim Hale extended good defensive efforts for the victors, who were forced to play without injured Co-Capt. and play-maker Dave Alexander.

T. J. Caveney led all scorers with 5 points for St. Robert's A, while Eddie Collins fired in 2 points. Mike Carroll, Jeff Cole and Chris Fortune also turned in hustling efforts for the losers.

St. Augustine B held off a late Christ Church charge to pull out a 22-18 triumph.

The victors exploded for 12 second period points to take a 16-6 halftime advantage. It was 22-12 after three cantos before Christ Church rallied.

Dynamo Dave Farrell poured in 14 points for St. Augustine B, with John Walsh and Danny Bolduc flipping through 4 points each.

Greg Stupack and Scott Wilton led the losers' comeback, finishing with 8 points apiece. Bobby Fitzgerald arched in the other bucket.

Baptist found the winning combination again, trimming South A by an 8-4 margin.

Sean Parker was the big gun for Baptist with 4 points, including a pair of clutch fourth quarter free throws. Jimmy Wetterberg and Dave Hill netted 2 markers each, while Dave Nardone starred defensively.

Phil Weeks was the entire show for South A, dumping in all 4 points on second and fourth stanza baskets. Will Washburn, John Sagaser, Bob Kilgo, Steve Mosher and the Gaynor brothers (Ken and Phil) also performed well.

West Parish B won its third game in the last four starts, bumping off South B by a 17-5 score.

Co-Capt. Bob Zwicker gunned in 10 points to spark West B. Co-Capt. Pete Newton, Chris Elliott and John Lee were good for 2 points each. Gene Harris had a third quarter free throw.

George Rouff connected for all 5 South points, while Ted Bertholdi, Jim Gardner, Jeff Wolfe, Scott Cochrane and Doug Taylor also sparkled.

St. Augustine A broke open a tight contest with six points in the third period en route to a 15-8 conquest of Free.

Six players got into the scoring act for the winners. Lenny Foote had 4 points, Charlie Wiseman 3 points and Jim Arnold, Danny Caselden, Tom Busta and Jay Diorio hit for 2 markers each.

Paul Hutchins scooped through 4 points in the final period to guide Free, while Dennis Monroe and Phil Kirkland notched 2 points each.

The final Junior tilt saw St. Augustine C blank St. Robert's C, 6-0. Mark Lyons, Ted Paris and Bobby Conroy contributed 2 points apiece to complete the victors' offense. Rich Aumais was a defensive standout.

Mike Murray, Mike Chase, Dave Fogarty, Gregg Praetz and Jay Marciano were the competitors for St. Robert's C.

Demers, Jr. Additional Executive Committee members not pictured include Philip K. Allen, Edward B. Bruce, Timothy P. Horne, Milton J. Meyers, Mrs. Arthur F. Muldoon and C. B. Swanson. The campaign hopes to raise the amount between now and March 31.

Community Dinner Is Planned

An Informational Community Dinner will be held Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 6:15 p.m. at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School to present the plans and objectives for the

Andover - North Andover Family "Y."

The drive to raise $1,500,000 to being these facilities to reality is currently underway. The committee planning the affair is Co-Chaired by Mrs. James R. Reid and Mrs. Robert L. Kent, assisted by Mrs. Clinton Seeley, Mrs. J. J. Mike Hartrich, Mrs. James R. Reid, Mrs. Fred S. Tarbox, Mrs. Robert L. Kent and Mrs. Richard Reichter.

Juniors Overwhelm Lawrence

It was strictly no contest as a basketball team comprised primarily of West Parish Juniors slaughtered a Lawrence Jewish Community Center team by a 43-4 score this week at the JCC gym.

The victory gave West a 4-0 edge in their "series," with the next contest listed for two weeks away. Overall, teams representing West Parish A of the Andover Church Basketball League have compiled a 71-3 record over the last five years. This season West is 11-1 overall.

This week the West quintet jumped out to a fast 11-0 lead after one quarter. It was 23-2 at the half and 33-4 after three periods. The JCC club managed just one field goal during the entire game.

The well-balanced West attack was led by Steve Serley, who netted 14 points and also pulled down many rebounds.

Geoff Bragdon also hit double figures with 13 points, while Brian Bronson was next in line with 8 points.

Chris Elliott and Steve Rosenfeld completed the West offense with 4 points apiece.

For the losers, Carl Abasaih and Scott Rosenfeld tossed in second period free throws, and then Rosenfeld swished a third quarter basket.

place, when it whipped intra-church rival West B, 40-22.

The game was close for just one period, as Bob MacMackin stuffed 18 points to spearhead West A.

Brian White pushed in 8 points and Dave Dauber canned 4, while Dana Cohen, Dave Bradner, Tom Comparato, Bill Emmert and Glen Prody had 2 markers each for the leaders.

Paul VonSacken had a basket in every quarter to top West B with 8 points. Freddie Rau collected 6 points, while Mike Henderson gunning in 4 points, Rich Chilson 2 and Barry McQuade 2 points.

The big surprise was the Christ-South triumph over St. Augustine B, as the victors led 5-2, 11-4, 11-7 and 17-14 at the various check-points.

Paul "Pop-Shot" Maguire and Dan Billings did the bulk of the damage for Christ-South with 8 points each. Paul Barry added a fourth quarter charity toss.

John Fox hooped 7 points to guide St. Augustine B. Mark DiIorio hit for 3 points, while Kurt Reming and Tom Luceri dunked 2 points apiece. Other standouts for the losers included Jamie Meyers and George Bragdon.

St. Augustine A grabbed a slice of second place, trimming Free 22-10 for its fourth win in five starts.

John Zemis hit double figures with 11 points for the victors. Paul Findone popped in 6 points, Ed Caselden and Steve Dubois dropped through 2 points each and Mark Moriarty swished a second period free throw.

On the opposite side of the ledger, Allan Gould banked in 4 points for Free. Dirk Vondell tossed in a 25-foot banker, Lamont Rodgers hit for 2 points and John Manning garnered one basket. Mark Hammar also played well.

Another intra-church rivalry saw St. Robert's A pelt St. Robert's B, 36-10.

John Drivas fired in 11 points and John Weitz 10 to guide the victors. Ken LaFleur notched 7 points, Rick Collins hooked in 4 points, Jay Caputo scored 2 points and John Carroll had one bucket.

Brent Goldstein creased the cords for 6 points to lead St. Robert's B. Tommy Saunders and Dave LaFleur had 2 points each, while Jimmy Fortune and Larry Weitz also played well defensively for the losers.

Girl Scouts To Assist PTO Council

The Andover PTO Advisory Council held a meeting on Jan. 17. There were delegates present from all schools.

Marilyn Fitzgerald reported that the Girl Scout Council approval has been received so that Girl Scouts can help the PTOs in the distribution and collection of the Climate for Learning Committee questionnaires. The questionnaires are to be distributed to the townspeople on Sunday, Feb. 20, and collected on Sunday, Feb. 27.

Discussed were plans for a town wide PTO meeting to be held on April 12 at Bancroft School on the results of the Climate for Learning Committee questionnaire. The PTO Advisory Council is promoting Family Skating Nites at Recreation Park. Each PTO that wishes may host a Family Skating Nite.

The next meeting of the Andover PTO Advisory Council will be held on Monday, Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school library.

Guidance Group Starts Hot Line

In order to facilitate communications between the home and the school a "Hot Line" and "Rap" time has been established. The three unit coordinators, Mrs. Peg Calderwood, Mrs. Norma McCabe, Mrs. Charles Donovan and Mrs. Iora Alexander, the Guidance Counsellor will meet with any parents who wish to discuss school problems. If parents would prefer, they may "call in" their questions at 475-9627.

The meetings will be held in the faculty lounge. Parents are invited to attend these meetings or call between 2:30 and 3:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoons.

Art Exhibit

Mrs. Marietta B. Amy has a show of her paintings now in the main reading room of the library. Mrs. Amy is a native of Massachusetts and makes her home on Elm St. in Andover. She studied at Vesper George School of Art, Designers' Art School, Academie Internationale d'Ete, Nice, France - with W. B. Hazelton, Ludwig Frank, Don Stone and John Chetcuti, Rockport. Mrs. Amy was for many years an Art Director and designer in New York. Her last twenty years have been spent as Art Teacher at The Pike School, Andover, as well as with private students. At present Mrs. Amy is an artist member of Rockport Art Association, Burlington Art Association and Andover Artists' Guild. She has had many group shows and has exhibited at the Addison Gallery and the Andover Art Gallery. Her show at Memorial Hall Library will last until Feb. 15.

Workshop

The Women's Educational and Industrial Union is conducting a Returners' Workshop for women who would like to prepare themselves for paid professional employment. Space is available for one or two additional women, if you are interested. A fee of $10 will be charged for the four two-hour morning sessions which will begin on Feb. 7, and continue on Feb. 14, Feb. 28 and March 6. The class will begin at 9:30 and end at 11:30 and will be held in the Print Room at the library.

Civilisation

The film series, Civilisation will continue on Tuesday, Feb. 1. Two showings of the color film, narrated by Sir Kenneth Clark, will be given, one at 1 p.m. and another at 8 in the evening.

Opera

On Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. the Library Opera Club will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Percy Crosby, 52 Alderbrook Road. Everyone is invited to attend. Die Fledermaus by Richard Strauss will be the feature of the evening.

Children's Room

Programs! Programs! Programs! The Children's Room at Memorial Hall takes delighted pleasure in inviting you to come spend the freezing days with us... in a brand new slate of programs designed to take the chill off February and March. Program information will be available through both the public library and school libraries, but here's a forecast of what's to come:

Story Caravan From Different Lands will borrow tales and activities from a different country each week during February and March. Elementary school children are invited to participate on Thursday afternoons from 3:45 - 4:30, and can look forward to The Venture Valentine on Feb. 10 (during which children will be able to make Valentines for their friends), probably a few leprechauns on March 16, and all kinds of other surprises.

Borrow A Grandparent/Borrow A Grandchild will be the special attraction for the first week in March. Through special arrangement with the Andover Haven, the Children's Room will have the unique talents of time-tested storytellers available during that week. A sign-up will be necessary to determine how many days the program will run (and it may be continued in the Spring programs). What a wonderful way to learn about the past in the United States or other countries... to fill the gap created when distance separates children from their relatives... to have fun!

Dramarama, an improvisational theater experiment, will meet in two sessions on alternate Saturdays, and will be continued in the Spring schedule if response is adequate. Grades 1-3 are invited to become actors and actresses from 10-11 a.m. on Feb. 5 and 19 and March 4 and 18, and grades 4-6 will meet the same days from 2-3 p.m. Please sign up in the Children's Room by Feb. 5 to indicate interest.

Storytellers' Workshop will be held on alternate Fridays at 3:30 and will busy interested fourth through sixth graders with telling stories to themselves and others. A sign-up sheet is in the Children's Room, but feel free to attend on Feb. 4 or 18, March 3 or 17 whether you've signed up or not! Littlest Listeners and VIBOR, of course, will continue at their regular times and with their regular participants, but be on the lookout for new additions each time you visit the Children's Room! Let's see... there'll be a children's photography exhibit in March, an egg tree for Easter, some books to judge in April...

Welfare

We are not the least bit optimistic, but remain hopeful that local efforts, particularly those of Selectman Sidney P. White and State Senator William X. Wall may result in a change of plans regarding the closing of the Andover welfare office.

The closing is a part of the overall state takeover of welfare operations, which has left much to be desired.

The Andover office, as of Feb. 28, according to present plans, will be consolidated within the regional office in Lawrence.

To the many recipients, particularly those in the senior citizen category, this will represent considerable hardship and inconvenience.

Too, it will remove from the welfare operation the very essence, we think, of such an operation, the personal approach to problems.

Since the state takeover, the welfare operation in the state has been in chaos.

One of the underlying reasons, we think, is that lack of personal contact and knowledge, which local officials once had, and still do in Andover.

The closing of the local office was a part of the overall plan developed for the state welfare organization back a few years ago.

Probably due to the local operation, the fact that it too, would be phased out, was probably overlooked.

Selectman White feels he has pertinent information which could possibly change the minds of state officials with regard to closing the local operation.

His colleagues have given him permission to approach the state in an effort to forestall the closing of the operation as scheduled Feb. 28.

With some effort by both the local selectman and Sen. Wall, possibly some beneficial action could be forthcoming to avoid the inconvenience which most assuredly will be placed upon the community's senior citizens, in particular, by the closing of the local operation.

As Usual

Congratulations to the Board of Consternation, otherwise known as the selectmen, for their usual deliberateness in tabling the Bailey Bridge issue Monday night.

The small span over the Shawsheen River which, until closed by the selectmen some months ago, eased the traffic problems in Shawsheen was up for reopening.

The board in usual fashion found sufficient questions to stall a decision on the matter.

Chief complainants to reopening the bridge, were, of course, the residents of Kenilworth Street, upon whose thoroughfare the brunt of traffic would fall.

The police chief had recommended the bridge be opened for a brief period of time to relieve the rush hour traffic.

Questions were raised as to ownership of the bridge and original agreements made when the bridge was installed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers when Raytheon was the sole occupant of the mill properties.

There was little question concerning the residents of York street whose street now handles the traffic.

Nor was there mention that, even now, motorists leave the mill complex via York street, then use Riverina road and Kenilworth street to make their hasty exit from the workaday world.

One opponent of the reopening was sadly mistaken when he convicted the board members of having their minds made up before the meeting.

Most assuredly this board could never be placed in that category, since many matters lie fallow, possibly in the hopes that the day of decision may never arrive, particularly if they are of a controversial nature.

Based on information presented the board Monday night, regarding this particular issue, a decision could have been reached one way or the other.

To delay such, as is a customary practice, only postpones the inevitable confrontation with the issue.

In Feb., 1775, Andover town meeting voted to "furnish the enlisted soldiers with bayonets at the expense of the town."

Elm Street

The town has before it, at the present time, some options regarding that section of Elm street maintained by the state department of public works.

The section is from Washington Avenue to North Andover.

It has been in a state of disrepair for some time.

Soon, now, there will be the usual complement of pot-holes in the roadway, which will bring state crews along with patch to make temporary repair, while the surface remains cracked, bumpy and generally in poor shape.

Rep. James P. Hurrell informed the selectmen Monday night that he had talked with officials of the state DPW and had been informed that options were open to the town.

The state would apply a surface to the present pavement, or it would make the necessary repairs, such as shoulder work, drainage, etc., and place a permanent surface, if the town will agree to take it over.

The latter seems to be a favorable option.

The state has done this in other communities. In North Andover, it made complete repair of a roadway, then turned it over to the town for maintenance and upkeep. The result was the town gained a completely renovated thoroughfare.

With options available to the town, as pointed out by Rep. Hurrell, we hope the town will take positive action soon, to make Elm street a uniform thoroughfare, particularly from a safety standpoint.

It is a main entranceway to the town and badly in need of attention.

Off The Top

Of The Desk

In almost vaudevillian form two employees responded to a query in a busy fish market recently when asked a pertinent question by a lady customer.

The visitor had requested the proper pronunciation of the popular schrod.

The two men were working at a sink in pursuit of their duties and one replied, "shrod," while the other gave the answer "skrod" leaving the women as confused as when she entered.

Auto manufacturers have been telling of all their improvements to meet the demands of the ecology age.

Such new instruments as emission control devices, dust collectors in company smoke stacks, are all being heralded as the firm's concerted effort to improve the environment.

We wonder, however, what the resultant cost will be in the final product.

Will the result be similar to the electric company's reminder on their billings, "your cost of cleaner air," with an accompanying figure.

A chance meeting with some residents of Walden, N. Y., this past weekend resulted in discussion of some of the attributes of communities.

The Walden resident spoke of one of the delights of the residents there when questioned as to the location of Thoreau's birthplace, to which they replied, "about 260 miles up the road."

Probably to the delight of the female of the species, the football season came to an official end last Sunday with the conclusion of the Pro Bowl.

A cartoon in a New York newspaper depicted it quite graphically showing a youngster turning off the television set and immediately beginning to oil his baseball glove.

Football is officially out of the way - until June.

During the winter months ahead snow and ice storms could cause considerable damage to trees. Trees broken by ice and wind will recover if given a helping hand. All hangers or broken branches should be removed. Make the cuts flush with another branch or the main trunk. Trace areas of torn bark to promote healing.

While pruning, re-shape the damaged trees to their natural symmetry. Long branches can be headed back. A large branch may be lifted by means of a cable to fill an open gap caused by the loss of a storm-torn limb.

Limbs and crotches that do not split may have become so weakened that another wind might send them crashing down. Weak crotches and limbs can be cabled and braced.

A big limb can never be replaced. But by cutting a branch back at a slant to vigorous bud, new growth will be favored. In time the tree will fill out. Proper pruning will throw new strength into the remaining parts of a tree. Eliminate cross-over branches.

Beautiful is the only way to describe the scenery in the TV special Sunday night in which Peggy Fleming skated with the Swiss Alps and castles in the background. The beauty and skill of Miss Fleming amplified the program's appeal.

The third richest PGA purse is expected to attract top golfers to Pleasant Valley Country Club in Sutton, this summer.

Fire Log

The following is a report of the activities of the Andover Fire Department from Jan. 18 to Jan. 24.

Jan. 18 - 398 North Main St., Howard Ponty, overheated oil burner; 329 River Road, Henry Nolet, brush fire.

Jan. 20 - 279 River Road, Harry Loosigian, tractor fire.

Jan. 21 - Burnham and High Sts., false alarm.

Jan. 23 - River Road, Joseph Letendre, rescue.

Jan. 24 - 349 North Main St., Robert Cedar, incinerator fire.

The Andover Fire Department ambulance responded to a total of eight calls during this same period.

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I would like to commend your newspaper, and especially your reporter, Mrs. Eccles, for what seems to me to be the increased quality and quantity of your reporting of news from the Andover educational community. Communications seems to be everyone's mind these days, as evidenced by the number of committees working to improve it, and you are certainly making a substantial contribution to the attainment of their goals.

In these next few weeks as the school committee and the administration devote most of their meetings to a consideration of the school budget, it is absolutely essential that your high level of reporting be continued. I feel that the school department (specifically, Dr. Seifert, Mr. Clapp, and Mr. Berberian) have done a superb job in the compilation and presentation of the budget and it is my hope that the town will respond with a willingness to study and consider it before town meeting. It should then be possible that all decisions made there be rational ones. The TOWNSMAN could perform no greater public service than your continued detailed reporting of the school committee meetings and the continuation of special feature articles about the various programs we are fortunate to have in our school system.

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

On Friday evening, January 7, the Andover Fire Fighters put out, in my home, what they probably considered a routine house fire. If it was routine it was only because of the efficiency, dispatch and dedication with which they handled the assignment.

A public expression of my Thanks and appreciation may not only provide these men with some satisfaction but also offer other readers a deeper sense of security.

When they're needed our Firemen really come through!

It is advised that townspeople await the inauguration of President McKinley before talking about the appointment of a new postmaster.

A. W. Edson of the Mass. Board of Education will speak to the teachers of Andover next week on "The Teaching of Manners and Morals in the Public School."

Dustin of Lawrence is putting on fire escapes on the rear of the Musgrove building. They contain an automatic attachment which will release the bottom steps at the touch of a finger.

While at work at the ice house at Pumps pond Saturday, Eerooks F. Holt, our local ice dealer, was severely injured about the head and shoulders when he fell down the "run."

The snow storm of yesterday was one of the worst in recent history. It was reported 24 inches where measured on the level, with drifts of several feet in some areas. Supt. Chandler had the plough out early, but many of the country roads will have to be cut out.

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM D. SELLARS

William D. Sellars, 79, a long-time resident of Andover died Monday at Danvers State hospital following a long illness.

Born in Loches, Scotland, he had been employed as a civil engineer for the American-Cymmid Corp.

He was a member of American Legion Post 8 and a veteran of World War I, serving with Company A of the 318th Engineers AEF. He served in the Meuse-Argonne Defense Sector.

He is survived by a brother, Harry Sellars of Andover, two sisters, Mrs. Herbert J. Towle of Bethesda, Md. and Mrs. John F. Lambert of Andover, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Lundgren funeral home, 18 Elm St. Burial will be in Spring Grove cemetery.

Memorial gifts may be sent to St. Luke's Chapel, Danvers State Hospital, Hathorne, 01937 or to the charity of one's choice.

MRS. JAMES SPARKS

Mrs. Jane (Sweeney) Sparks, 73, a life-long resident of Andover, died yesterday at the Randolph Nursing Home, following a long illness. She was the widow of James Sparks.

Mrs. Sparks at one time had worked in the Marland Mills. She was a member of St. Augustine's parish.

Surviving is a brother, Francis Sweeney of Andover.

A funeral Mass was celebrated Wednesday at 9 o'clock in St. Augustine's Church. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

MRS. ARTHUR C. WALLIS

Mrs. Evelyn K. Wallis, 67, wife of Arthur C. Wallis, Washington Apartments, Marietta, Ohio, died suddenly Jan. 9.

She had been a resident of Andover for many years, and was a member of Andover Baptist Church where she served as a member of the Missionary Society. She was past president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Metchen, N.J.

Surviving her are her husband, two sons, Clive Zeke, Marietta, Ohio, and Dr. Bruce E. Wallis, Victoria, British Columbia; two sisters, Mrs. Selma Green, Jamaica, N.Y., and Mrs. William Moncur, New Brunswick, N.J.; one brother, Max Krauss, New York

City; and five grandchildren. Two brothers, Lewis and William and one sister, Sarah Heidman are deceased.

Funeral services were held at the Cawley and Sons funeral home, Marietta, Ohio. Burial was in Valley cemetery.

MARIETTA ANGELORO

Marietta Angeloro died in Brooklyn, N.Y., Jan. 17.

She is survived by four sons, Francis, Martin and Vincent, all of New York City and Frederick of North Andover; two daughters, Ann Jordan and Constance Lopreste, of Brooklyn, N.Y. and a brother, John of Merrimac.

Also surviving are several grandchildren and grandnephews of Andover.

WILLIAM C. CROSBY

William C. Crosby, 35, 1 Pioneer Circle, district manager of the Lawrence office of John Hancock Life Insurance Co., died Friday, Jan. 21, at Lawrence General Hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Concord on May 2, 1935. He served in the U.S. Army and was a veteran of the Korean conflict.

He was a member of St. Augustine's parish and Chicopee Lodge, No. 1849 BPOE.

Surviving are his wife, Frances M. (Oatley); a daughter, Kimberly Anne; his mother, Mrs. Alice L. Mitchell of Englewood, Fla.; and a sister, Alice, wife of Joseph Felix of Waltham.

The funeral was held Monday with a Mass at 11 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church. Burial was in Ridgeway Cemetery, Watertown.

In memory of Mr. Crosby memorial Masses may be submitted in his name.

MRS. DANIEL C. POTTER

Mrs. Annie G. (Ferris) Porter, 76, 12 Highland Ave., wife of Daniel C. Porter, died Tuesday, Jan. 18, at the Lawrence General Hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Porter was a native of Bangor, Maine. She had made her home in Andover for 30 years. She was a member of Christ Episcopal Church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Barbara A., wife of Charles A. Hanson of Andover; a brother, Wallace Ferris of Andover and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday at 11 a.m. in Christ Episcopal Church. Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Christ Episcopal Church.

Plans Skate Party Friday

On Friday evening, Jan. 28, the West Elementary School P.T.O. will sponsor a "Family Fun Skating Night" at the Andover Recreation Park from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m.

All parents and West School pupils are invited to come, skate and socialize. Hot chocolate will be served in the Lodge from 7 - 9 p.m.

Parents are also reminded to circle Feb. 26 on their calendars for the P.T.O.'s fund-raiser, a "Las Vegas Night," which will be held at "Briarcliff" on Osgood St.

Cub Pack Enjoys Exhibition

The Cub Scouts of Pack 72 enjoyed a spectacular track and field, gymnastic exhibit at their January Pack Meeting.

The theme of the pack meeting was "feats of skill" and seeing these field events was an enjoyable choice for the Cubs. Dick Swift brought in a select group from the Andover High School Gym Team. Under the direction of Dick Bourdelais, two boys, Ronnie Sthaley and Tommy Appleton ran the hurdles and high jumps. Ken Jen Lee chose Ernie LaMire, Bobby Wooten, David Pattulo, Rodney Stedman and Steve Sirois to provide gymnastic exhibits on mats and gym horse. Both Mr. Lee and Mr. Bourdelais told the Cubs that this is a sport for all boys, no matter what their size. Many boys found that competing against themselves, constant daily practice, always doing better was most difficult, but very, very appealing.

Many awards were given at the December and January pack meetings. The new Wolves are John Barrett, Robert Barry, Jason Powell, Richard Secord and Danny Shea. Philip Kirkland received a gold and silver arrow. The Webelos have been working hard. The Engineer Badge went to Scott Boucher, Andy Cobin, Eric Darby and Gary Morrisette. John Grecoe, Daryl Porter, John Sagaser and Teddy Vocell received Aquanaut Badges. The Showman Award went to John Sagaser, Erick Hanson, Teddy Vocell, John Grecoe, Tommy Busta, Daryl Porter, Doug Kirkland and Pat Crowley. John Sagaser won the Athlete Award. Michael Travis, Gary Morrisette, Scott Boucher and Warren Comeau received the Forester Badge. The Outdoorsman Award was won by Andy Cobin, Eric Darby, Michael Travis, Gary Morrisette, Scott Boucher and Warren Comeau.

March 7 and March 18 are important dates for Pack members to remember. On March 7 the annual Blue and Gold Dinner will be held at Vocational Technical High School. Saturday, March 18 is the third annual "Morning of Fun" sponsored by the boys. The Franklin Park Traveling Zoo will put on a performance. Boys from Pack 72 will be selling tickets townwide at 50¢ apiece. Details for the Feb. 15 Pack Meeting will be announced later.

Dean's List Student

Miss Lynne Marie Fisher, 187 Chestnut St., has been named to the Dean's list at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, for the first semester.

Dr. Philip R. Shriver, president of the University, has sent a letter of congratulations to the honored student.

AFS Seeks Assistance

One of the most successful and rewarding people - to - people programs in this town is looking for the help of the community.

The Andover chapter of the American Field Service has been bringing students from foreign lands to our community for the last eight years. Since 1964, it has sponsored fourteen students from the following countries: 1964, the Netherlands and Norway; 1965, Paraguay; 1966, France; 1967, England and Laos; 1968, Brazil and France; 1969, Rep. Philippines; 1970, Italy and Panama; 1971, Ceylon. In turn, six American students from Andover have gone to such far flung places as the Philippines in 1965, Germany in 1966, Switzerland in 1969, New Zealand, Barbados and France in 1970.

This year, two foreign students are attending Andover High School under the auspices of the American Field Service. Miss Tente Baake of Norway is living with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sagaser, and the host parents of Miss Patricia Quesada of Costa Rica are Mr. and Mrs. William Poleatewich. The host family plays a key role in the program by providing the real American home that these young visitors need.

The AFS chapter is looking for Andover families who would be interested in welcoming a young man or woman from a foreign country into their family circle.

One of the benefits which the community derives from the Chapter's participation in the host program is the eligibility of Andover students to apply for a year's study abroad. Under the Americans Abroad program of AFS, these students live with a local family and study at the school attended by their host brother or sister.

Co-Chairmen of the Andover AFS Chapter's Home Selection Committee are Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Witt and Mr. and Mrs. Georges Krivobok. They would welcome inquiries from any and all interested families. Literature is available by contacting Mr. Witt.

Andover's Educational Perspective

By Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert
Supt. of Schools

Sometime before the town meeting, the school department will make copies available of this year's tentative budget. It is most appropriate to share with you the priorities contained in the budget presently being reviewed by the School Committee and the Finance Committee. This year's budget is in line with the objective established three years ago: reduce the percent of increase. We have also proposed needed program changes while keeping the costs down.

The Major emphases are as follows:

1. Phase II of the expenditure plan for the reading program. The next three years will show a substantial decrease in the cost of the program.
2. Phase II of the expenditure plan for the math program. The next three years will also show a substantial decrease in the cost of the program.
3. Individualized materials for the junior high in math and reading.
4. Elimination of the waiting list in the Learning Disabilities Program.
5. Initiation of the Opportunity School.
6. Instituting an elementary science program. This will give

SCHOOL LUNCH MENU

Monday - Italian spaghetti with meat sauce, carrot and celery sticks, grated cheese, French bread and butter, fruited jello and milk.

Tuesday - tomato and rice soup with vegetables, tuna salad roll, potato chips, tossed salad, apple-sauce raisin cake and milk.

Wednesday - chilled fruit juice, chicken in gravy, oven-browned potato, buttered carrots, cranberry sauce, bread and butter, chilled fruit and milk.

Thursday - steamed frankfurt on a roll, baked rice with vegetable, pineapple cole slaw, mustard and relish, ice cream and milk.

Friday - homemade meat loaf, pan gravy, mashed potato, buttered corn, bread and butter, oatmeal cookie and milk.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

It is not too late to call in your reservation for the regular monthly luncheon sponsored by the Council on Aging for Andover's senior citizens. A telephone call to The Haven (475-3968) will reserve your place at the Vocational High School for Tuesday, Feb. 1. Free bus transportation will leave The Haven at 12:30. Cost is only fifty cents.

Reservations are still being accepted at The Haven for the Feb. 10 luncheon party at DiBurro's. Total cost, including bus transportation is $3.70. The bus will leave The Haven at noon. You are asked to choose your entree when you make your reservation. Why not gather a few of your friends to make this an especially happy party?

On Dean's List

Miss Nancy Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison, 210 South Main St., a freshman at Centenary College for Women, Hackettstown, N.J., has been named to the Dean's list for the first semester.

A Friend Of The Symphony

By Helen M. Eccles

If Alma Grew ever carried a placard for women's rights, she surely would add elegance and a graceful step to the parade, and her own self-deprecatory sense of the ridiculous.

Chances are she never will, as she has concentrated instead on women's responsibilities since coming to Andover in 1938.

Mrs. James Grew has worked thousands of hours in Andover and Boston -- and helped initiate many projects -- to encourage and support good education, good recreation and good medical facilities for children, good opportunities for women at home to earn money with needlework and handicrafts; she supports even good television and, above all in recent years -- good music. Her name has become synonymous with the Friends of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Her efforts are always reliable, realistic and effective. But, fortunately, they are also characterized by that humor and elegance. Alma Grew is realistic enough to dread being on a committee she values for a cause -- it means work and she'll do it -- but it's a pleasure to be on a committee with her, and that does help the cause along.

Mrs. Grew came to Andover in 1938, the wife of a young French teacher, James Grew. He will retire this year as head of the Modern Language Department, a respected teacher and a leader in modern language associations across the country.

Alma Grew's interest in music comes honestly. She brought to Andover from her New York home an extraordinary background as the daughter of Alma Gluck, one of America's most famous opera singers, who sang at the prime of her talented fame during the World War I years.

Interest in the Andover schools and the larger Andover community made the young Mrs. Grew an active worker in the League of Women Voters, and school and community organizations but she dismisses it: "But that was way back when we were fighting for kindergartens!"

And so it goes for some other institutions that we now take for granted. The Hay Scales, a North Andover landmark, has now been operating for many many years. Alma Grew was one of the original workers for this project to provide a market which would bring the work of people who could do fine needlework and other talented handicrafts in their homes to the attention of people who value and will buy their handwork. The Hay Scales today draws both customers and consignors from many miles away from the old North Andover center.

Alma was also a founder of the North Andover - Andover Parents' League, an effort to bring the two communities closer by providing common recreational and social activities for both public and private school children, from the fifth grade up, of both towns. The Parents' League activities first opened the Phillips Academy pool to community children, provided tennis lessons at nearby courts, a condensed drivers' education course, and also a Ski and Skate Exchange, to keep children's winter recreation equipment costs down to a sensible level through a "bring and buy" approach once a year. Some of these activities have passed on to the community schools and YMCA, but drivers ed goes on, and each year more families circle the date of the Parents' League Ski and Skate Exchange.

Mrs. Grew's volunteer activities in the past few years have centered in Boston, but have taken place in Andover, for causes which benefit the people of Andover and all of Greater Boston. These causes, Children's Hospital, Television Channel 2 and the Boston Symphony Orchestra, need wide community support to continue effective programs.

They depend on friends who are willing to work, initiate fundraising projects, telephone long lists of people, dun friends for money in fund drives, ask for newspaper publicity and win more friends for the cause.

Alma Grew has persuaded Greater Lawrence merchants to donate items to the Channel 2 Auction and she collects books every year for the Yankee Book-stall to benefit Children's Hospital. (Do you have any adult or children's books in good condition you can donate? Call Mrs. Grew.)

Above all, every year, she works on ways to enlist more people to become Friends of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

"No one seems to realize that the ticket price doesn't come close to supporting this great symphony. One of our first jobs on the Friends of the Symphony was to find out the names of people sharing concert tickets, so we could appeal to them to join the Friends of the Symphony and help support the concerts they were enjoying. Any one can become a Friend for a very nominal price, and for a bit more, give more support and be invited to all the special events for members."

The strategies for winning financial support for the BSO are many, and all require the active Friends in each community to persuade long lists of prospective supporters to buy records for the benefit of the Symphony, attend a benefit recital by BSO orchestra members, go to parties for the benefit of the Symphony, or buy a chance to support the Symphony.

"Andover's been terribly lucky," Mrs. Grew claims. "Two people in Greater Lawrence were among the ten to win a free trip to Sardinia. Rad Abbot won a Porsche last year, besides helping the Symphony."

But the most popular fundraiser was last year's Musical Marathon which gave Boston area listeners a chance to order their favorite music performed by the Symphony on the radio in a marathon performance of taped performances, some of them never published.

The Musical Marathon will be repeated this year on the weekend of March 2, 3, 4 and 5, Mrs. Grew reports, and will go on from Thursday through the weekend, on Radio Station WCRB. Listeners can order as many minutes of chosen music from the catalogue at the Memorial Hall Library, or call any Friend of the Symphony for a catalogue of available music. "For the money you pledge, you hear the music you chose, and become a Friend of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Last year the Symphony gained nearly 900 new Friends through the Marathon, and we hope for many more this year," Mrs. Grew told the TOWNSMAN.

The Grews retire from the Phillips Academy campus this spring, to a home on Johnson Road in North Andover. But Alma Grew has taken on the job of helping to raise special funds for the faculty wives' project to clean out and beautify Rabbit Pond on the PA campus. She probably knew better than anyone else how much work this entails.

Last week Alma Grew was going through her bookshelves of their large Hidden Field home to weed out books they won't be taking to their new North Andover home.

But she is still collecting books for the Children's Hospital benefit book sale.

Does it seem ridiculous?

CAR TALK

WHEN IS BRAKE JOB DUE?

On the average, you can expect 25,000 to 30,000 miles on a set of brake linings, but this may vary from as little as 10,000 to as much as 40,000 miles depending on the type of driving you do and the kind of driver you are.

Also the front wheel linings usually wear out before those on the rear unless you're guilty of driving with the parking brake on.

You're smart to have the linings checked at 10,000 miles and at least every 10,000 miles thereafter. It only takes a few minutes to have the front wheel linings checked and about 30 minutes for all four wheels.

But don't go on mileage alone. If the brake pedal gets a different feel, or there's a squeal or metallic grating when brakes are applied, or the car pulls to one side when braking - get those brakes checked. The ability to stop is your car's most important safety attribute.

Icy roads and snowy streets can be a real winter driving problem. Avoid these problems by having snow tires installed on your car. And you can depend on us to give it the care it deserves. All service and workmanship guaranteed. Full line of Mobil products. Complete auto repair, towing and road service. Town will be asked at town meeting to approve use of land at High Street and Burnham road for use to construct a veterans housing project.

The sum of $10,000 will be requested at town meeting to continue enclosing Rogers Brook.

The Phillips Academy hockey team has suffered badly this season, not because of the competition, but due to lack of ice.

Several offices uncontested as nomination papers are filed for the annual town election.

10 Years Ago - January, 1962

On the basis of current estimates, the overall town budget will be increased 3.5 percent this year.

Atty. Raymond W. Schlapp will seek three year term on the board of selectmen. Vincent P. Davey to seek school committee post.

Legislative action expected to insure question of fluoridation of water supply on March ballot.

Selectmen refuse to open warrant for insertion of private article for town meeting consideration.

Cinema Classics committee given permission to continue use of school buildings for showing of films over protest of local theater owner.

Self-Growth
Subject For Coffee House

New methods for self-growth will be the subject of discussion at the People's Choice Coffee House this Friday, Jan. 28 at 8:30 p.m. Speaker will be the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford, group counselor in Transactional Analysis for Synectics, Inc. of Cambridge. Mr. Bradford is the former minister of the Free Church.

He was trained in Transactional Analysis at the Western Institute for Group and Family Therapy and now conducts training institutes and workshops throughout the northeast.

He has worked with school systems, industry, colleges, and universities. In this area he has conducted seminars and workshops at Challenge House in Methuen, the Christian Formation Center, and at Western Electric, Merrimack Valley Works.

TA is a relatively new approach to counseling, developed by Dr. Eric Berne - author of the best selling book "Games People Play," and more explicitly interpreted by Thomas A. Harris, M. D., in the book, "I'M OK - YOU'RE OK."

TA is a method of problem solving and self growth useful to both specialist and layman.

People's Choice is a program oriented coffee house for adults to which youth are welcome. It meets at 8:30 p.m. at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover (Rte. 133).

Newest In Volkswagen Station Wagons

Here's the newest station wagon in the Volkswagen family! It's the brand new VW 411, displayed here by Mrs. Frances Aboud in the beautiful new showroom at Park-Hegarty Volkswagen, Inc., 248 Haverhill Street, Methuen. The VW 411 is Volkswagen's idea of a big car, designed and built from scratch, tested and proven in Europe for 3 years on some of the worst roads in the world. It brings together all the sensible, practical things VW is famous for, plus all the advantages of a big car... and it comes 2 different ways - the VW 411 wagon as shown above, and the VW 411 4-door sedan. They ride like much bigger cars, but still maneuver like much smaller cars. Either way you get it, you get it all: fully automatic 3-speed transmission; radial ply tires; rear-mounted air cooled engine; cloth interior; adjustable bucket seats; door-to-door carpeting; flow-through ventilation system with a 2-speed fresh air blower; thermostatically controlled auxiliary heating system; independent 4-wheel suspension system; built-in headrests; disc brakes up front, drum brakes in back; a 24/24 warranty; 4 free VW Diagnosis check-ups; about 22 miles to the gallon, etc.

At Park-Hegarty Volkswagen, Inc., you will see a tremendous selection of Volkswagens in all models. There's the VW sedan, commonly known as the Beetle, also the Super Beetle. If you like something a little sporty there's the VW Karmann Ghia coupe or convertible. If you don't like to drive what everyone else is driving, try the VW Fastback. If you always seem to have an extra bundle, there's the VW Squareback. If you like to travel with a crowd, the VW station wagon (bus) seats up to 9 passengers. And don't forget the all new 4-door sedan. All cars, except the bus, have the automatic option.

Drive out for a test drive in a VW, for service, or just to visit the beautiful new building - Park-Hegarty Volkswagen, Inc., presently the largest standard Volkswagen dealership in New England, now located at 248 Haverhill Street, Methuen. For your convenience, the Service Department is open Monday through Thursday until 10:30 P.M., Fridays till 6 P.M.

AWARD WINNER. J. Robert A. Lemieux, TOWNSMAN photographer, is shown with the citation presented by the New England Press Association. Lemieux was the winner of an honorable mention award in the feature photograph class of the annual NEPA contest in which over 1,000 entries were judged.

Photographer Honored

J. Robert A. Lemieux, a photographer for the TOWNSMAN was honored at the winter convention of the New England Press Association, for his photograph published last summer.

The entry in the feature photograph section of the annual NEPA awards, was selected for honorable mention.

Over 1,000 entries were received in the annual contest, the largest newspaper contest in New England.

The picture was of a frog seated comfortably on a boy's chest on a lazy summer day last July.

The citation was presented during the annual awards banquet attended by over 500 at the Sheraton-Boston hotel in Boston, Friday night.

Lemieux, a professor of electrical engineering at Lowell Technological Institute where he is in charge of logical design of digital systems, has been doing photography, "seriously" for about a year.

Pursuing his hobby during the summer months, the River Road resident, photographed several featured presentations for the TOWNSMAN, among which was the selection for the contest.

The photo showed not only the youngster with his amphibious pet, but also a closeup of the creature.

A total of 14 panel discussions on newspaper improvement were conducted during the two-day convention.

Russell Train, chairman of the Council on Environmental Quality was the speaker at the banquet on Friday night.

Attending the convention from the TOWNSMAN were Raymond B. DeRuisseau, business and advertising manager, who is also a director of NEPA and Managing Editor Robert E. Finneran.

Alan F. French and Theodore Meinelt, Jr.

Seeking the school board position, which will be vacated by Dr. Daniel Frishman are Donald Coleman, 91 High St.; William L. Lane, 154 High Plain Road; Stephen R. Duly, 18 Enmore St., who has returned his papers to the town clerk for certification; William J. Coderre, 37 Stinson Road and Jeffrey L. Lyman, 19 Lovejoy Road.

Registration Of Voters Monday Night

The Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in two locations Monday night, Jan. 31 to take registration of new voters to be eligible for participation in the annual town election and town meeting in March.

The board will be in session from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at the Sacred Heart School, voting location for precinct three and West elementary school, polling place for precinct four.

Monday at 5 p.m. is the deadline for filing nomination papers for candidates seeking town office.

Storage Permit Tabled

A request for storage of an additional 5,000 gallons of gasoline in underground tanks for a service station at 431 South Main street, was tabled by the selectmen Monday night.

The action was taken following a hearing by the board.

The application was submitted for Doris B. Bacon by William J. Degnan, Esq.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin recommended the tabling of the permit, which had the fire chief's approval as far as safety regulations are concerned.

The manager noted that there are alleged violation of the conditions of a variance granted by the board of appeals in 1957 for operation of the service stations there. The tabling would allow such time as necessary that any alleged violations could be cleared to the satisfaction of the appeals board and the building inspector.

School Board Race Holds Interest

As the deadline nears for the filing of nomination papers for the annual town election, the school committee race appears to be holding the most interest.

Through Wednesday morning of this week, Atty. Arthur Williams was uncontested in his bid for re-election as moderator, there were two seeking the vacancy on the board of selectmen and five seeking a three year term on the school committee.

Candidates have until 5 p.m. Monday to file papers. The town election will be held Monday, March 6.

One of those who obtained nomination papers, John C. Doherty of Juniper Road, has announced he would not seek election to the board of selectmen. Doherty said that he had been elected to the bar and did not have sufficient time.

Candidates for the seat to be vacated by Sidney P. White are
